A Sensation Among Churchmen. A New York letter to the Philadelphia

Quite a sensation has been created among churchmen by certain extraordinary services held at St. Alban's (Episcopal) Church, in the Fifth Avenue, near Forty-seventh street. on Sunday. Said services were more Puseyite than Dr. Pusey himself would sanction. and a well known High Churchman remarked to me this morning that the way of doing sings at the celebrated Madis Chapel, some years age, was quite evangelical compared with the programme at St. Alban's. The chorister boys are not only dressed in surplices, but also in black cossacks reaching to their feet. Some lights were burning near the chancel, too, but that may have been owing to the darkness of the day.

..... 90 lows..... The present has been a declining market from beginning to enc. The Albany buyers paid more for their droves, and put a higher value upon them at the open-ing, thinking that the light supply of 2,900 at Allerton's would warrant an advance. They obtained better prices for a short time, but an apathy on the part of the boyers, who cared very little whether they bought or not, soon, told them it was not best to strain the point. There were a few very good cattle, and these were wanted to compete with turkey at the Thanksgiving, but inferior cattle, of which there were too many, found few buyers, and several remnants were left over, together with some good lots. From the beginning Monday morning until the close Tuesday, P. M., the decline on medium and ordinary stock was like per lib, but the advance as and ordinary stock was 1 he per lb, but the advance at the opening, and the larger numbers sold the first foremoon, kept the average nearly up to last week, our figures by no means showing the real state at the close, which owners called one of the hardest of the season.
